The Forestry Roundtable is an event for undergraduate students and student clubs and organizations, the opportunity to meet with the Dean and other College administrators. A primary purpose of the Roundtable is to facilitate communication between students and College leadership, update the Dean of the College on their individual, club and organization activities and goals.

The Forestry Roundtable consists of:
- The Dean of the College of Forestry
- The Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies
- CoF Student Clubs and Organizations
- Ambassadors for Agriculture, Forestry, and Natural Resources
- SEEDs
- Board of Visitors (and other) Interns
- Cooperative Education participants
- Other students groups as deemed applicable or interested
- Other CoF leadership as deemed applicable or interested

Forestry Roundtable meets once per term, with each term offering the opportunity to a different set of students/groups. The meeting time will be determined as schedules allow; however, tentatively the meetings will occur in October, February, and May.
